Volume 4 Issue 7

The Right Funds at the Right Time

July 2009

June Performance

The Nasdaq Composite, the S&P 500, and the Top Eight Model Portfolio all hit new rally highs mid-June but have eased off those highs since then. Five Top Eight Model Portfolio funds, Automotive, Brokerage & Investment Management, Communications Equipment, Technology, and Wireless, had one-month gains up to 10%, but Top Eight Model Portfolio performance was hurt considerably by Gold, Materials, and Natural Gas, which had one-month losses of 5% to 12%, leaving the Top Eight Model Portfolio with an overall one-month gain of 0.809%. The Top Eight Model Portfolio now has made gains for four months in a row, and it has nearly pulled out of the red for year-to-date.

The Nasdaq Composite tracking portfolio, S&P 500 tracking portfolio, and Top Eight Model Portfolio 2009 YTD returns are 16.739%, 3.213%, and (0.863)%, respectively.

Final Performance of Funds Sold on June 3

Fundranker exchanged three funds on June 3. Here are the returns the three funds contributed to the Top Eight Model Portfolio:

Fund	Bought	Sold	Return
Construction & Housing (FSHOX)	5/4/2009	6/3/2009	(5.13)%
Retailing (FSRPX)	3/4/2009	6/3/2009	44.49%
Telecommunications (FSTCX)	3/4/2009	6/3/2009	31.67%

Fundranker Moves Heavily into Technology

The Top Eight Model Portfolio has been in and out of a number of technology funds already this year, and now it will take on an even heavier lineup of technology funds. Earlier this year, Fundranker held Computers, Electronics, and Telecommunications very profitably, garnering gains of 10%, 11%, and 32%, respectively. These three funds will return to the Top Eight Model Portfolio for July. Fundranker also held IT Services briefly earlier this year for a return of 16%.

Fundranker currently holds Communications Equipment, Technology, and Wireless and will continue to hold them in July, so the Top Eight Model Portfolio now will hold six of Fidelity's eight technology funds. The only technology fund that Fundranker has not held this year is Software & Computer Services, which rose to number nine in the June rankings, nearly putting it in the Top Eight Model Portfolio, also.

Spring Rally Lurches Sideways into Summer

As we mentioned above, the Nasdaq Composite, the S&P 500, and the Top Eight Model Portfolio all hit new rally highs in mid-June. Since those highs, however, the market has been more volatile with more and larger losses than gains, just the opposite of the first part of the month, which saw more and larger gains than losses.

Consumer Confidence Unexpectedly Falls in June

The Conference Board's Consumer Confidence Index fell unexpectedly in June to 49.3 from a revised 54.3 in May. Its two sub indexes, the Present Situation Index and the Expectations Index, fell to 24.8 from 29.7 and to 65.5 from 71.5, respectively.

Consumer confidence traditionally is seen as a trailing indicator as well as a contrarian indicator. Despite the fact that the Expectations Index also fell for June, note that it is still very much higher than the Present Situation Index. The markets fell June 30 on the announcement, but this fall in consumer confidence may actually portend better times to come.

Holding Period Alert

If you purchased shares after June 5 of any funds which are being exchanged on July 6, then to avoid roundtrip transactions under Fidelity's frequent trading policy for Select funds, you should wait at least 30 days before exchanging the funds

Investing New Money

If you are a new subscriber, or you have new money to invest using the Fundranker system, first put the new money into Select Money Market. To reduce exposure to roundtrip transactions, on the next Invest New Money Date (see box below), exchange your new money into the funds in the Top Eight Model Portfolio for that month.

New subscribers should allocate equal amounts to each of the eight funds. If you already have a portfolio of Top Eight funds, allocate new money only to funds that are not being exchanged this month to balance those funds as much as possible.
